

Lonny Kubas, Director of Marketing, International Intermodal, CN

A 32-year transportation and logistics veteran, Lonny's years of experience in the supply chain and rail industry is supported by a deep background in operations, marketing, sales, business development, international freight forwarding, and multi-modal operations. With a strong track record of implementing ground-breaking solutions in all segments of CN's business, this has allowed CN customers to compete and grow in today's challenging market place.

Recently Lonny headed CN's Asia operations in Shanghai for the past number of years. This role has further contributed to his overall supply chain perspective and International trade knowledge.

Lonny's appointment in 2015 as Director of Marketing, International Intermodal, continues his tradition of serving in roles for which he has a strong personal passion. He, as CN, is committed to driving innovative supply chain partnerships among our customers, stake holders and our operating groups.
