

Adam Cook

Director of Supply Chain Sales

Canadian National Railway

Adam Cook holds a Masters Degree in Economics from the University of Saskatchewan and joined CN in 2010 as Regional Account Manager based in Saskatoon, SK. Adam has since held positions of progressive responsibility within CN as Market Manager - Metals & Minerals based in Montreal, QC and National Account Manager – Forest Products based in Vancouver, BC. In his current role, Adam leads a team of Account Managers with responsibility for Supply Chain Sales throughout Western Canada and the US Midwest.

Adam brings a diverse rail and supply chain perspective to this year's conference and is passionate about the role CN can play in helping our customers grow both Domestically and Internationally to access Global Markets.