

Yvette Myers

Regional Director

Marine Safety & Security Pacific

In Yvette's new role as Executive Director of OPP she is responsible for the delivery of the Oceans Protection Plan's Marine Initiatives in the Region, as well as Transport Canada's suite of Marine Safety and Security programs and services for commercial vessels and pleasure craft such as, Port State Control, Domestic vessel inspections, Examination and Certification of Seafarers, and Environmental Prevention and Preparedness.

During Yvette's 30 plus year career, she served over 20 years in various positions with the Canadian Coast Guard, which included 10 years of active sea service. A highlight while sailing aboard CCG ships was to circumnavigate North America prior to assuming the role as Regional Director, Marine Programs.

Yvette's vast marine career also included; Director of Operations and Harbour Master with Port Metro Vancouver, Director of Marine Investigations at the Transportation Safety Board, and Executive Director Navigation Safety and Environmental Programs for Transport Canada in Ottawa.

In addition to enjoying a maritime profession, Yvette volunteers for the Mission to Seafarers and enjoys outdoor activities such as fishing and kayaking with friends and family.

Yvette is looking forward to working with you in her new role.
