

Adam M. Goldstein
Vice Chairman
Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd.

Adam Goldstein was named Vice Chairman of Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd. effective May, 2018. Goldstein oversees the corporation's Government and Destination Relations globally. He has been with the company since 1988.

Goldstein currently serves as Chair of the Florida Caribbean Cruise Association (FCCA). In 2015/2016, he served as Chair of the Board of Directors of Cruise Lines International Association, or CLIA. Previously, Goldstein served as the National Chair of the Travel Industry Association of America (now U.S. Travel Association) in 2001 and has been inducted into the Travel Industry Hall of Leaders. He also serves on the Energy Security Leadership Council, a leadership affiliate of Securing America's Future Energy (SAFE) in Washington D.C.

Goldstein graduated with honors from Princeton University. He also has a law degree from Harvard University and an MBA with distinction from INSEAD, the European business school in Fontainebleau, France.